Annual Memorial Mass Nov 10th at 11am

The 11am Mass this Sunday will be offered for all those whose funerals took place here at the Immaculate Conception since last November. We invite their families to join us - as they are the centre of our prayer and remembered still. There will be food and drinks after Mass in the hall.

Eucharistic Ministers short meeting after each Mass this week. A card to remind you of some points and explain new ones. We're asking for contact details so our list is updated. You can still volunteer to help

Ministers of the Word (Readers) New lectionary begins on Nov 30th/Dec 1st. It's important we know what this means for all of us. There will be an info evening in the hall, 7pm Nov 21st, for everyone but readers (& new volunteers) really ought to be there!

Sacraments for our children and their families
Been a poor start to our sacramental programme this year! We are still awaiting registration forms and less than half our families came to the Mass of enrolment; already there is a drop off in attendance. We need you to come (don't send your child with their pals - come as a family!) If you don't comer and take part, its fair to presume you don't want to come and celebrate these sacred moments with us.

Grounds & garden care. 1. Last week we had removed branches overhanging neighbouring properties in Dawsholm & Craigieburn (£660) 2. Huge thanks to Pat Lally who worked a coupe of days to leaf-clear & tidy! 3. Thanks to Anette & Charles who cleared the borders & planters at the church doors. 4. Costs of maintaining our grounds is now over £5,500 pa! To reduce that we're looking to create a wee maintenance group; not the heavy jobs, but leaf-clearing & general work. If you could give some time to this (or even run it) can you see the parish priest?
